Carpet padding factory plans location in Hondo

Approval of a $667,642 Economic Development Administration loan this week has cleared the way for the U.S. Bonded Padding Co., Inc. to build a plant in Hondo.

Word of the approval of the loan came from the office of U.S. Senator John Tower on Thursday, Nov. 11, in the form of a telegram which read in part:

"Economic Development Administration today approved $677,642 loan to U.S.

Bonded Padding Company of Hondo to help establish new plant to manufacture carpet padding. The plant will employ over 100 people ... total cost of project to be $1, - 226,500."

Gerald Alexander, president of the corporation which is building the new industry, told the Anvil Herald Monday morning that they hope to begin construction on the building around the middle or late December. Production is projected to begin by April 1.

The building will be 125 by 600 feet, or 75,000 square feet. This excludes the office building which will cover another 5,000 square feet.

U.S. Bonded Padding Co., Inc. will be located on the city-owned land immediately south of DeMontel's Warehouse. It will be serviced by a railroad spur which will run west of the National Guard Armory north to the building site.

Alexander said the company will employ approximately 50 employees when it begins production in April. "But in a year's time the total employment will reach the projected 115 persons," he said.

He also explained that he

Pre-Christmas promotion to spotlight consumers

The big pre-Christmas sale promotion is on in Hondo this weekend, Nov. 18-19-20, and all consumers stand to benefit.

In fact, they will benefit two ways! First, in the big savings being offered by all the merchants participating in the event. And secondly, by the fine prizes they stand to win.

Forty three (that's right, 43) merchants are participating in this promotion to push

Lease bids accepted

In a special session Monday night Hondo City Council accepted bids on the four tracts of Airbase land for a total of $81,098.35.

High bidders on the various tracts for five-year leases included:

Tract 1 -- Hondo Livestock Auction, $19,009.00; Tract 2 -- Milton Highsmith, Gene Barger, Ray Highsmith, a partnership, $12,120.00; Tract 3 -- Jack Ulbrich, $22,500.00; Tract 4 -- Pope & Son, $27,469.35.

In other action, Council members approved a purchase of a Leach Packmaster refuse container for the garbage department at a bid cost of $6,142, plus a couple of accessories for some $150.

In an earlier session, Council had purchased a Ford truck on which the container will be installed by the Leach Co.

FIZZLER

A bomb threat phoned in to the Hondo High school proved to be a fizzle Wed. A male voice called the threat in.

Hondo and they are doing it with money saving bargains and a big cash prize giveaway.

Prizes will total $460 and anyone can register for the drawings. Just register in any store participating in the big event.

Drawings will be made at 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 20 at Radio Station KRME. No purchase is necessary to register and you need not be present at the drawing to win.

And check these prizes: First Prize--$200; Second prize--$100; Third Prize--$80; and three other prizes of $40, $20 and $20.

All prizes will be in $20 certificates and can be redeemed for merchandise at any of the participating stores.

"Response to the promotion from merchants has been fantastic," Mrs. Nancy Fridle, chairman of the Promotion Committee, said. "The interest is high and we firmly believe all Hondo and area consumers are going to reap benefits from this gigantic pre-Christmas sale promotion."

Merchants participating in the Pre-Christmas Sale Promotion November 18-19-20 include:

The Ranch Store, Peden Rexall Drug, Jake Schuele Ford, Sunset Grocery, Winn's Variety Store, the New Frontier Restaurant, Grant's Barbecue, Alamo Lumber Co., Hondo Lumber Co.

Also, Artistic Floral, Ben Franklin, Anvil Herald, Graff's Western and Men's Wear, Dan's Drug Store, Delony Jewelers, DeMontel's Furniture, Dorothy's Flowers, Economy Motors.

Also, Fohn's White Auto Store, Western Auto Store, H. E. B. Food Store, Hondo National Bank, Jack Winkler Motors, Jones Shoe Store, E. R. Leinweber Co., Medina Savings Association.

Also, Moehring's True Value Hardware, Montgomery Ward, Hondo Sears, Nestor's Super Market, Super Sav Superette, Mary-Rene's Dress Shop, The Style Shop, Finiger's Fashions, Sillman's Cafe and Truck Stop, K&B Drive In, Blue Bonnet Cleaners, KRME Radio Station, Hondo Bakery, Dairy Queen, Anvil Office Equipment, The Chicken Coop and Chapa Furniture.

Tradition will be pushing the Hondo Owls Friday night when they host the Judson Rockets in a Bi-District game on Barry Field at 8:00 p.m.

Hondo won District 28-AA with a 6-0-1 record, while the Rockets tied with Randolph for the title in District 27-AA with a 4-1-0 slate. Judson represents the district because the Rockets whipped the Ro-Hawks.

Over the year Judson had a 6-3-1 record, scoring a total of 144 points while allowing 10 opponents 99. In their district the Rockets tallied 111 points and gave up only 55.

During their season, the Owls scored 258 points and allowed only 73. In District 28-AA, Hondo racked up 209 points and were really stingy with opponents by giving them only 25.

Operating from a Power I or Tandem I, the Rockets will throw two 210 pound backs at the Owl defense. Both Paul Hambrick (44) and John Green (24) are strong runners and hit with a lot of power. Green was third in his district scoring race, going over for four TD's and two extra points for a total of 26 points.

Judson's other man in the backfield, 140-pound Bob Horton, is the speed merchant on the Power I and over the district race he scored three touchdowns and two extra points for 20 points.

The Rockets Quarterback Gerald Lockey will, and can, throw the ball. The fact that end Thomas Staudt scored three touchdowns and two extra points in the district battles proves they put the ball in the air. However, Lockey has no special target with his passes. He chunks to anyone who is open.

Weight-wise the Rockets hold an advantage over the Owls. Their offensive team will average approximately 173 pounds per player and Hondo's eleven offensive starters tip the scales on about 159 average. On the defensive wall, Judson hits 177 and Hondo will increase its average to about 163.

The probable offensive starting lineup for the Rockets includes: LE, (81) Larry Schwing, 165; LT, (71) Jeff Ward, 165; LG, (64) Doug Dowleam, 151; C (50), David Mandt, 163; RG (62) Armando Villemas, 180; RT (72) John Hellsten, 190; RE (85) Thomas Staudt, 175; QB (10) Gerald Lockey, 150; B (44) Paul Hambrick, 210; B (24) John Green, 210; B (40) Bobby Horton, 140.

The winner of the Friday night game between Hondo and Judson will play the winner of the Needville-Smithville game.

A BIG HONDO WELCOME

... to the U.S. Bonded Padding Company. Announcement came by Telegram from Sen. John Tower's office on Thursday, Nov. 11, one day late for our deadline that week (dang nab it).

Later that afternoon Sen. Lloyd Bentsen's office called to see if we had the good news.

This is great news for Hondo. It will employ about 110 persons when it reaches top production. And of course you can say without fear of contradiction that this means a big boost to our economy, and makes the company a most welcome member of our industrial family.

So we say "Welcome" to Jerry Alexander and all the people he will be hiring at the plant.

WE NEED HELP

... from our readers, contributors and everyone else on our Thanksgiving issue of the Anvil Herald. We will publish one day early so that everyone in the county can receive the paper on Wednesday, the day before Turkey Day. So we are setting a deadline for all copy, news and advertising at 5 p.m. Monday, November 22. Help us, please.

WILD GAME EATING

... will be the order of the day Saturday night when the Chamber of Commerce stages its annual Wild Game Dinner in City Park. Harry Filleman reports that committee chairmen give him the high sign that everything is in tip-top shape.

ON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

... don't forget that tickets to the annual banquet are now on sale. The banquet is slated for McDowell School cafeteria on Monday, December 6 with U.S. Senator John Tower as principal speaker. Tickets are $3.00 per person and may be purchased at the Chamber office or any member of the Board. Get yours early for we are expecting a fine turnout to hear our Senior Senator.

THE SUBSCRIPTION

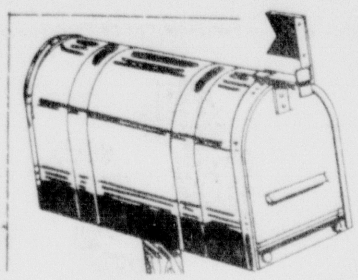

... offer we are making on the Anvil Herald between now and December 23 is what we East Texans would classify as a "humdinger!" Not only do you get an Anvil Herald for 52 weeks, but you receive a $1 coupon that can be exchanged at any local store. We don't normally like for people to "get to us", but this is one time we openly invite anyone and everyone to come in and "take advantage of our generosity."

It seems one morning recently he got up and decided to bake some biscuits for breakfast. So he turned the oven to the required

Dear Mr. Leinweber
On behalf of the Hondo Garden Club, we extend to you our sincere appreciation for your guidance and cooperation in furnishing a helping hand, to do the many last minute details necessary to beautify our city prior to our District Seven meeting, held in Hondo on November 3rd and 4th.

The Hondo Garden Club served as hostesses to two-hundred guests with whom we shared our pride in the beautification projects we have undertaken. As we toured our city, many praises were bestowed on us for the beautification of Highway 90, Medina Memorial Hospital, Memorial Park, and the Post Office and Municipal Buildings. Each of these projects was the result of teamwork performed by our members, with the aid of our City Manager. Without the concerted efforts of both, we could not have achieved our goal.

As Chairwomen, we are proud to have been a small part of Hondo's Civic Development Program.
Very truly yours,
Mrs. Agnes B. Oefinger
Mrs. Jack Winkler
Mrs. Robt. P. McGarity.

Dear Mr. Lawrence:
We are happy to report that our WE NEED A HOME campaign generated over 450 inquiries in our 16-county area.
We are convinced that this fine response could not have been possible without your excellent support.
It is anticipated that many of our special-needs youngsters will find homes as soon as our inquiries are screened and studied. Thank you for your help.

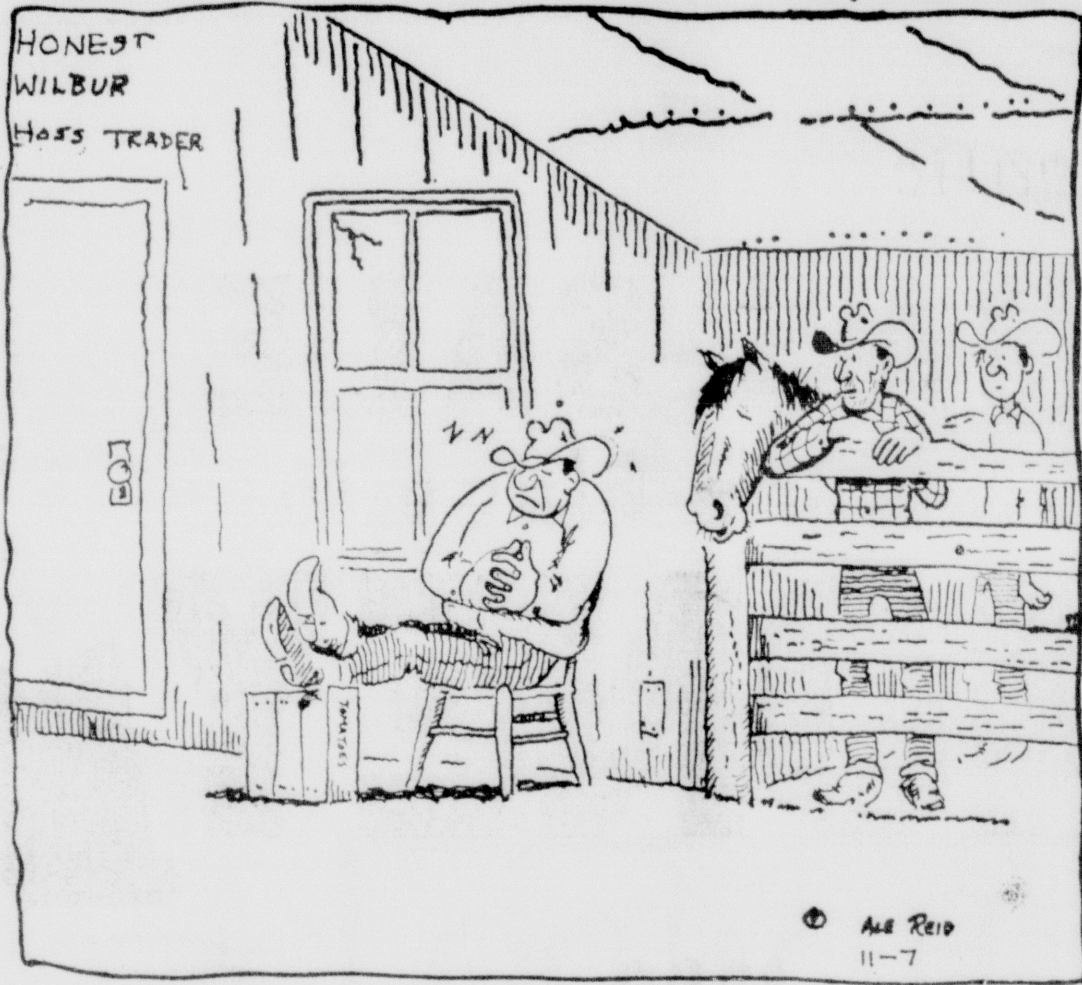

Sincerely,

Dear Fritz,
We wish to express our appreciation to you and the City for your help and cooperation in cleaning up and fixing up our town to make it more attractive for our recent Garden Club Convention visitors. They all seemed to be quite favorably impressed so I feel that Hondo will be remembered with pleasure.

Thank you,
Sincerely,

Young Farmers attend workshop

A leadership training workshop for Area VII Young Farmer officers was held last Tuesday night, Nov. 10, in Gonzales.

Several officers and members of the Hondo Young Farmer Chapter attended the workshop which began at 7:30 p.m. in the Gonzales High School Vocational Agriculture building.

Glenn Dittmar, local Young Farmer Chapter president, led the delegation from Hondo which included vice-president George Gooding, treasurer Keith Martin, reporter Darwin Schrader and advisors J. D. Schmidt and Gerald Farris.

Each local officer was sent to a special workshop covering his individual area of responsibility to exchange ideas with officers from chapters in other towns throughout Central Texas.

The training provided in each workshop was designed to better prepare Young Farmer officers to better serve their local chapter and other community activities in which they work and was held under the direction of Area VII officers and advisors.

The couple of "bull frog" hunters discussed in a story last week paid another fine in Justice of Peace Harold Herring's court this week.

Dan F. Meyer and John R. Samson of San Antonio paid $50 and costs for trespassing. They had already paid $100 and costs each for hunting at night after being caught in Yancey.

temperature and went about his business of popping the wrapper off a can of biscuits. Then he began to smell a peculiar odor coming from the oven. He opened the door and there rested a pair of tennis shoes belonging to son Tony. It seems Juanita had put them there to dry the night before. Yes, they were a little scorched, but Tony wore them anyway. And the biscuits came out all right too.

A CLIPPING

. . . from the Houston Post had D'Hanis Commissioner Charles Langfeld excited the other week. And I guess it would be safe to say, and fair to Charlie, that he wasn't the only one who commented on Leon Hale's account of D'Hanis in his daily column. Hale gives other parts of the county favorable publicity in his article, also. So, to prevent making anyone unhappy, let's repeat portions of his column:

" . . . But I love this country to the west. I came by way of U.S. 90, San Antonio, Castroville, Hondo, D'Hanis, Sabinal, Knippa, Uvalde and on to Eagle Pass. Just as quick as you get west of San Antonio a little way, the country changes mood. The land begins to open up and sweep. The horizon widens.

" . . . If you drive out his way on U.S. 90, be sure and stop just a while at Castroville. Drive over and park on the big town square, which hasn't got a single building standing in it. Not out in its middle, I mean, where a courthouse would be in a county seat town. The buildings around the outer edge include the hospital and St. Louis Church. Of all Texas' old churches I believe this one is my favorite. A real old stone sweetheart. Castroville, you know, has a French background. Settled by Henri Castro, a great and good man who brought 27 shiploads of French people to Texas back in 1847.

"A few miles west of Hondo I met a fellow whose pickup had gotten hot on him. He was dipping water out of the ditch and refilling his radiator. My father used to say about this country that any time a man could fill his radiator out of the ditch he could get a loan at the bank too. Because it meant a wet season you know . . .

" . . . When you get to D'Hanis, cut north across the railroad tracks and look at that string of old red brick store buildings. All empty except for the Post Office and a grocery store at the west end. Around in the back of them you see rickety old stairs for reaching the rooms over the stores. Offices were there once, I bet. Buildings of this kind were once so common in small towns that I paid no attention to them. Now, in just the last 10 years they've begun to strike me as quaint and antique and worth looking at.

"There's a big deserted saloon building at D'Hanis. Has tall glass doors and this metal siding with the peculiar surface. By peculiar I mean the surface is raised and uneven and I think it's supposed to be an imitation of rough-cut stone. Used to see it painted white and then it did look like stone. Some reason, this kind of siding was used mainly in the west part of the state . . .

So, there you have it, Leon Hale's description of some of our county. And I would agree with Charlie (and Connie Koch mentioned this, too), this paints a nostalgic picture to those people cooped up in big cities. They don't know what they are missing by not living in the wide-open spaces of the west, breathing the clean air and feeling just a little closer to heaven when looking at a star-filled sky at night.

At a Wednesday evening ceremony at First United Methodist Church Chapel in Hondo, Miss Linda Michael Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Moss, be-came the bride of Keith Harold Donnelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Donnelly of Alden, New York. Rev-erend Homer Wiener per-formed the wedding cere-mony.

The bride was attired in an Empire-styled gown with Bishop sleeves of white lace over taffeta. Her finger-tip veil of illusion lace was held in place by a taffeta circlet. For something old and borrowed she wore an heirloom locket belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Laura Cameron. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses and elegant carnations.

Mrs. Floyd Steubing, twin sister of the bride, was ma-tron of honor and her sister's only attendant. Mrs. Steub-ing wore a floor-length blue gown and carried a crescent bouquet of blue mums and wore blue mums in her hair.

Social Security
Rep. Hondo

QUESTION: Since my father died, I've gotten monthly social security survivors ben-efits. I will turn 18 next year and will be graduating from high school. Can I continue to receive my checks if I go to college af-ter graduation?

ANSWER: Yes, you may con-tinue to receive survivors benefits until 22 as long as you are a full-time student and unmarried. You should receive a notice sometime before your 18th birthday telling you to get in touch with the social security of-fice if you plan to continue in school.

QUESTION: I have been married for 14 years and have never changed my name on my social security record. My social security number is still under my maiden name. Since I have worked on and off in the last few years, will I lose credit for this work?

ANSWER: No, but your em-ployer has probably been asked about the different name on his employee earn-ings report. To make sure you get the proper work cred-it, call or visit any social security office to change your name on social security records. You will be issued a social security card with the same number you have now, but with your married name on the card.

QUESTION: I am 63 and have a son in college. I've been told he and I could re-ceive $150 a month from so-cial security. I still work and earn $3000 a year. Could I apply now?

ANSWER: Yes you could. In fact, you and your son could still receive $1080 in a full year in spite of your $3000 earnings.

Engagement announced

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ray Butler of San Antonio an-nounce the engagement of their daughter, Deborah Kaye, to William Rayburn Gentry, Jr., son of Chaplain (Lt. Col.) and Mrs. William Rayburn Gentry, Sr. of Mem-phris, Tennessee.

Also a graduate of Mac-Arthur High School, Mr. Gen-try is a senior psychology major at Trinity University in San Antonio. Upon gradu-ation he will work toward a Ph.D. degree in clinical psy-chology.

anticipates on hiring workers and placing them in a training program to train them for the special machinery to be used.

The company will manufacture a polyurethane carpet padding which is marketed extensively in the Southwest region of the United States.

When asked why the company selected Hondo for its location, Alexander said, "Hondo is geographically located so that we can handle our major marketing area by our own trucks."

He also explained that they were assured of a good labor supply by the Texas Employment Commission. "And another factor," he added, "is this area has been designated by the U. S. Government as a re-development area."

Other persons who have been instrumental in bringing the new industry to Hondo are Edward M. Yturri, Austin attorney, who will serve as secretary-treasurer of the corporation; and Lewis P. Terrazas, a director and counsel.

Oakdell, Inc. of San Antonio played a big part in the decision to come to Hondo, and will act as project director on the new building. Alexander pointed out that this is the first manufacturing facility EDA has participated in in South Texas.

The Alexander family, Mr. and Mrs. and three children, moved to Hondo around Sept. 1 from Richardson, near Dallas.

Special month set for Texas products

AUSTIN--To call public attention to the quality, economy and availability of Texas Agricultural Products, Governor Preston Smith has designated the months of November and December, 1971 as "Texas Agricultural Products Months".

This promotion strikes home because in Medina County farmers produce cabbage, pepper, corn, eggs, and many other items for sale.

The Governor's designation also marks the beginning of the fourth year of the Texas Department of Agriculture's "Texas Agricultural Products" (TAP) program which expanding the market for Texas-grown food and fibers, including beef, pork, turkey, dairy products, forestry, fruits, vegetables, pecans, peanuts, poultry, eggs, rice, honey, cotton, wool and mohair."

Commissioner John C. White initiated in 1968.

"The goal of the TAP program," the Governor reminded Texans, "is improving and expanding the market for Texas-grown food and fibers, including beef, pork, turkey, dairy products, forestry, fruits, vegetables, pecans, peanuts, poultry, eggs, rice, honey, cotton, wool and mohair."

In promotion of Texas agricultural products, the Texas Department of Agriculture uses billboards, newspapers, radio and television, individual mailings and visits of Department personnel to the more than 15,000 food stores in Texas.

Governor Smith urges Texas retailers to exhibit Texas agricultural products and Texas consumers to look for and buy them, especially during the TAP months of November and December.

Parents Stamp Out Drug Abuse With Facts

By Jerry Williamson
Chief Of Police
City of Hondo

Today's Subject: Reasoning It Out With Your Children

Many of my parent readers will shrug their shoulders and laugh when I talk of "reasoning with children." They've had experience which seemingly proved there was no such possibility. But, who doesn't remember Adolph Hitler with his theory that if you could lie often enough people would soon come to believe you. Perhaps we can turn this thinking around and make it . . . tell the truth often enough to the children and eventually it will soak in and be accepted by them.

I never get on this subject of drug abuse without being reminded of the statement which came sardonically from a teen to his father. The parent had found definite signs of the boy having used LSD. The boy said simply, "give me one good reason why I should not use LSD." If the son had been the great intellect that he supposed himself to be, he would not have had to look very far to find not just "one good reason," for there are many reasons, not only against LSD, but other drugs as well.

Over 300 brand new drugs have been developed during the last 10 years. These include antibiotics, tranquilizers, anti-cancer medications and many others which are extremely beneficial to medical science . . . when they are used properly! Many of these have unknown results when it comes to human birth defects. Some have produced damage in animal experimentation. There just has not been time to obtain experience with many of the new drugs in humans. Even with old and familiar drugs medical science does not know all the clues to their defect-causing potential.

Every now and then newspaper headlines bring to our attention a catastrophe such as was caused by a supposedly safe tranquilizer, thalidomide. A few years ago, you'll recall, thousands of babies were born in Europe with drastic physical deformities and the cause of this was traced to mothers who had taken thalidomide! LSD is under scientific research right now and indications point strongly toward it being a cause for chromosome damage. In short, if this is ultimately proved factual beyond a doubt, the LSD user is not only endangering himself, but also the lives of his still unborn children! More importantly, responsible scientists fear that news of this type coming out in the papers may obscure the greater truth . . . that there are probably no non-toxic drugs!

Now, many times a bright, well-meaning child will come back with the remark, "but, these bad things about drugs have not all been proved to be fact as yet," and this is where the parent has to draw on his experience as an adult. You know, and I know, that when medical science starts giving early warnings about certain drugs, it is not going to be too long before they will be backed up with documented evidence. Because we are older and have been around for a considerably longer period than our children, we can see the handwriting on the wall, and this is why it is up to us to impress on the children every fact we can find, every case history we can quote, every scientific indication obtainable on the subject of drug abuse.

Many people feel the repeated warnings about drugs are unduly alarming. To these people I would acknowledge and emphasize that many of the newly developed drugs, as well as those that have been available for years, have great benefit to human health and comfort. However, before we accept uncritically any drug or remedy, before we experiment with pills, smoking or sniffing chemicals just for thrills, it behooves all of us to consider the possibilities of what the cost might eventually be not only to ourselves but to the yet unborn. This thinking will probably make a far greater impression on your girl children than your boys, but it is best that both sexes be given the information!

Be with me next week for another discussion on drug abuse.

Empty Stocking drive on

The Paul Reiley family was first to make a donation to Hondo's Empty Stocking Fund followed closely by Mrs. E. W. Brucks and the Wesley Guild of the Methodist Church.

This announcement by Mary Ruth Cameron kicked off the annual event directed by her.

There are 70 children on our list who will have no Christmas unless it is provided for them through The Empty Stocking. The people of Hondo have always been more than generous and we have faith that they will be again.

"It would greatly help us if the donations could be made as soon as possible," Miss Cameron said. "To shop and select for this many is no small job and we feel we could do a better job if donations reached us earlier."

Power cutoff revealed

Residents and business persons from 11th to 17th streets on Ave. K will have an electrical power cut off this coming Sunday (Nov. 21) morning, Fred Johnson, manager of the Hondo City Electric System, announced.

"Power will be off from 8 a.m. to approximately 12 or 1 p.m."

"We will be changing the primary voltage and installing a new transformer," Johnson said. "We are sorry to inconvenience anyone, but to improve our service to the public we have to make repairs."

scores of Medina County farmers, the cash grain crop in Medina County and the demand continues to grow-- thanks primarily to the burgeoning cattle and swine feeding operations in Texas. The 75,000 acres of Grain Sorghum planted in Medina

Boy Scouts seeking new members

St. John's Boy Scout Troop 219 meets weekly on Tuesday nights from 7:30 to 9 at St. John's Catholic School. Boys who are not Scouts but 11 years of age who are interested in the Scouting program and boys who are Scouts must register as members of the Boy Scouts of America this month, November. For further details contact, Jack Heath, Scoutmaster.

Troop 219 participated in the Clean-Up Campaign sponsored by the Hondo Garden Club. To increase their knowledge of the outdoors, the Troop attended the Wild-life program sponsored by Hondo Young Farmers.

At this month Owl and Rattlesnake Patrol campout the Scouts worked on lashing, cooking requirements and prepared tents for wet winter weather by water proofing them. On Saturday night of the campout parents of the Scouts were invited to the campout to view their work, taste their cooking and entertained by skits by Scouts Jim Weynand, Johnny Kalinowski, Robert Rendon, Chris Cole, Craig Heath, Joel Hannemann, Joe Tschirhart, Ronald Lange, Mike and Mark Graff and Rene Sanchez.

GO BIG BLUE!

Harmon afraid to pick on Texas Turkey Day

Before the season started, we heard that the Louisiana State football team had made so much of their date with Notre Dame this fall, L. S. U. fans were afraid they would have a "one-game season". Well, if that's the case, their "season" is at hand. They meet the Irish Saturday in Baton Rouge. And the Tigers could very well have an undefeated "season". We're picking 12th-ranked Louisiana State to upset Notre Dame, our #8 team, by 3 points.

The longest winning streak in college football is going to carry over into the 1972 season. The Toledo Rockets, unbeaten in 33 consecutive games and ranked 21st in our ratings, will notch number 34 Saturday against Kent State. Toledo will win by 31.

We blow our horns when we have a good forecasting weekend, and we'll let you know by moans and groans when we have a bad one. And we did! On Saturday, November 6th, we had one of the muddiest crystal balls we've had in years. In our major college picks, we were all right - an even 75% with 45 right out of 60. However, in the college division games (those so-called small colleges), we were miserable . . . just below 69%. So our season totals through November 6th read: 1,334 right and 428 wrong for a .757 batting average. We're really not complaining.

Fourth-ranked Michigan makes its final bid Saturday for an undefeated season and for the championship of the Big Ten. The Wolverines, in their traditional final game, meet Ohio State in Ann Arbor. Rose Bowl-bound Michigan will beat the 18th-ranked Buckeyes by at least 14 points.

Washington, #14, meets Washington State in the 64th meeting between these two old rivals. The Huskies have won 39 of these games, and will be favored to beat the Cougars for the 40th time. However, Washington State, with one of its finest teams in many years, will only be a 15-point underdog.

Turkey Day, Nebraska, and Oklahoma! What a three-way holiday combination! However, there will be enough newspaper space devoted to copy about this game without more here. So, we think Nebraska, #1, is going to edge Oklahoma, #2, by 2 points.

The East's powerhouse, Penn State, rated fifth, will bounce Pittsburgh by 38 points. Tennessee, #17, will whip Kentucky by 21 points in another of football's traditional games. And Colorado, #9, will blitz the Air Force by 18 points.

This week
That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

The Halloween pictures in last week's ANVIL HERALD were real treats even if two of them did trick me. When I saw a bunny on page one, I thought I might have lost all track of time and that it was Easter back home in Hondo. Sure enough, it was only a cunning little boy who, in private life, is DAVID BARRIOS, Jr.

JEFFREY, age 2, is the son of John's friends, TERRY and MARTY GARNER of Niagara. When he called on us Halloween, he was also dressed as a bunny and carried a real carrot for proof. I am sending David's picture to Jeff so that he can see how Texas bunnies look.

I was just about to write to TONY and MARGARET MENDOZA to warn them that they'd better start feeding their younger son, MICHAEL, as his bones were beginning to show. A second look at Mike's wide grin reassured me that he was only a make-believe ghost with disappearing bones as soon as he changed back to a person!

The Herald was a generous 18 pages and I think I probably read almost every word. I'm sure that the Garden Club members are glad that their bi-g show is over and it must have been a highly successful one. What else, with our HGC ladies in charge?

I'm glad to know that the pool at the new Whitetail Lodges, "WHEN FINISHED, will provide recreation for guests". With winter breezes headed that way (snow flurries here), recreation in an unfinished pool might get a big goose-bumpy!

Congratulations are in order for GARY's 16 employees with a year's perfect attendance record.

That's the kind of cooperation and dedication to duty that it takes to meet schedules and keep the home fires burning as well.

In anticipation of a later visit to Old Niagara on the Lake, I read a book by that title (by P. J. Stokes), published by the University of Toronto Press. (The historic town is just across the Niagara River on the Canadian site.)

It is a book of pictures, with detailed descriptive matter, showing the early day houses (1807-1840) many of which still stand and some of which have kept their original design intact throughout any required restoration. I think MILTON BATOT's fine "architect mind" would thoroughly enjoy it.

Of course, I was reading way over my comprehension but to help me understand what it was all about (and, hopefully, to remember at least some of it later) I took notes from the adequate glossary which showed photographs of such features as window pediments, pilasters, triglyphs, verges, quoins, cornices etc., etc. and maybe I'll be able to identify at least one such when I see the houses.

And, all these years, I've been thinking that about all there was to building a house was four walls, floors, a roof, and an entrance and exit--plus monthly rent! If you don't own your own home!

I'm glad to note that the South Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association is still on the job. A few years back, Medina County farmers were all set (or at least a good many were) to have a go at sugar beet raising.

WINNIE BRADEN (then with C of C) and I attended almost every meeting in our area and others when we could. I still have a bulging file of our progress up to the time beets seemed to disappear from our interest potential as a future income crop.

It is good to know that interest in the plan is being reactivated.

Maybe you'd better not let the kids read this but a sampler on display in one of the area gift shops advises:

news

Conservation continues to be on the move in the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District.

Colby Joe Heyen of Hondo has completed eight acres of critical area shaping on his stock farm near Quilhi. Previously, this land was used for grain sorghum, but the flood water caused so much erosion and soil movement, that Heyen has changed his plans and the entire area will be sprigged to Coastal Bermuda grass.

This is an excellent practice, taking eroded draws or creeks or water drainages through cropland and shape them up, save soil and get a good return from the land by planting the acres into a good perennial grass.

Paul Mueller of San Antonio is planning to construct a farm pond on his ranch below D'Hanis. His brother, Harry Mueller, Jr., of Hondo, is also in the process of building a farm pond on his ranchland. The ponds will be constructed in an area where better distribution of grazing land can be received and adequate water furnished for livestock.

Julius Aelvoet and Rene Aelvoet are about ready to start with the installation of about 3,000 feet of 12-inch underground plastic pipe. This will be added to the several thousand feet of pipe already in use, and will greatly improve the efficiency of the irrigation systems. Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service will do the layout and design work for the irrigation pipe lines.

Milton Poehler of Hondo has some flood damage, as did all of his neighbors. Poehler is now in the process of leveling 15 acres of irrigation land to bring back the efficiency of his irrigation. This is surely a good practice and there are many irrigation farms in our district that could use some land leveling on their irrigated cropland.

Frank Jensen of Austin is planning to terrace his cropland directly southeast of the Hondo-Devine bridge. A waterway will be constructed to protect the area from outside water that crosses FM 173. With terraces and a good grassed waterway, this land will be adequately protected from the flood waters that frequently pass through this good land.

Richard Weynand reports that he is ready to start construction on his farm pond on his stock farm about 15 miles north of D'Hanis. He has

John Schoellman is going to start shaping the creek that passes through his farm southeast of Hondo. The area will be planted to a good perennial grass and valuable acres will be protected from runoff or flood water. We of the Soil Conservation Service enjoy our work and helping landowners apply sound conservation practices on our valuable land.

They'll add the spirit

These four young lovelies from D'Hanis will add the spirit Saturday night when Homecoming is celebrated by the Cowboys and their fans. The Cowboys will host Brackettville in a district game and could win the district with a win. This game was originally scheduled for Friday night, but

Owl Band enters Region UIL contest

The Hondo High School Band, directed by Billy A. Harrell, will enter the Region XI, University Interscholastic League Marching Contest to be held in Pear-sall this Friday, November 19th. The band members hope that this will be the first step to another Sweepstakes Award which they received last year.

Judges will be Joe Rodgers from New Braunfels High School; Bob Lewis from John Marshall High School in San Antonio; and Herb Kamau from Gonzales High School.

There are 21 bands entered in the contest. The Hondo band marches at 2:45 p.m. and the public is invited to attend.

Owl history has way of repeating

History has a way of repeating itself when it comes to winning football in Hondo. The 1971 Hondo Owls head into the state playoff trail Friday night against the Judson Rockets. Thus, they add to an already long, impressive statistical story. Many people question statistics; they say they can be made to tell any story that one wishes to tell. Football statistics at Hondo High School certainly tell an impressive story, and throughout the years it has been a story Owl fans have loved.

Statistics tell the story about the Hondo Owls being a winner, a story of players and fans alike who want to win, who like to win and have long ago set a winning tradition.

Since 1927 the Owls have won 316 games, lost only 119 and tied 23.

In 1956 the Owls went all the way to the state finals to drop a heartbreaker to the top team of the state that year.

But that one drive to reach the spot next to the best in Texas does not tell the true story. But these statistics do:

Since 1927 the Owls have won eight regional titles, 1932, 1934, (In these years Regional was as high as Hondo could go), 1942, 1945, 1952, 1954, 1956, 1969.

They have grabbed 14 Bi-District titles, 1932, 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, 1945, 1946, 1952, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1963, 1965, 1969.

And of course while winning all the above the Owls added some extra district titles in there to take a total of 20; 1932, 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, 1945, 1946, 1951, 1952, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1959, 1962, 1963, 1965, 1966, 1968, 1969 and in 1970 they shared the crown with Carrizo Springs.

There have been two zone titles in these wins also.

Raymond Hicks, Bandera rancher and wildlife expert and Bob Ramsey, Kerr County rancher and big game hunter, presented the program.

Hicks showed colored slides of wildlife, wildlife habitat management, and told the group ways that

Lions plan big Turkey Shoot soon

The Hondo Lions Club is planning a big Turkey Shoot come Sunday, December 19.

No definite site has been selected but the project which the shoot will benefit is already known. Money derived from this project will go into the Lions Scholarship Fund.

In conjunction with the Turkey Shoot Lions will be giving away a .243 Remington rifle as a grand prize on the day of the big shoot.

"Tickets for this will be on sale sometime this week or early next week," says Fred Graff, project chairman.

TICKET INFO

Do you have tickets to the Bi-District football game at Barry Field Friday night?

They are going fast—but some 300 reserved seats still are left. They can be bought for $1.75 at School Business Office 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Thursday, 8 a.m.-3 p.m. Friday.

Student tickets are 50 cents in advance, 75 cents at the gate.

Ligon leads scoring

Hondo's Keith Ligon, adding a three touchdown outburst against Poteet, ended both regular season and district play as scoring leader in District 28-AA.

Ligon wound up with 11 touchdowns and four extra points for 70 points in 10 games. In district action he had nine TD's and four extra points for 58 points.

Quarterback Tom Hill was the only other Owl to get in the top 10 for the season. He was eighth with three TD's and 28 extra points for a 46-point total. In district, Tom was third with two touchdowns and 27 extra points for a 39-point total.

Wrap up district

Owls wallop hapless Aggies by 64-0 score

What else can you say after you've said, "clean the bench" and the Owls still rack up a 64-0 win over the hapless Poteet Aggies.

The score was a fitting wind-up to the Hondo regular but one would have to wonder if the game did anything for the Owls' bi-district tussle with Judson Friday night.

Hondo wasted no time against the winless Aggies as they turned big Kebo Ligon loose through right tackle and he exploded 60 yards for a touchdown in the early seconds. Later Ligon scored TD's on long runs.

And with only 14 seconds remaining in the first quarter, Tom Hill fired a pass to Eric Grant who turned in some very fancy running to cover the 58 yards needed for the tally. Hill's kick, one of six, was good and the score read 28-0.

In the second quarter Coach Nelson Bippert began clearing the bench, including several B-Team gridsters moved up to the varsity.

Lonnie Knowles scored Hondo's next tally on a fine 22-yard run. And later B-Team quarterback James Prescott showed he will be in contention for a full time job in 1972 by firing a pass to Grant, who again thrilled the crowd with some fancy, running, twisting and turning his way for a score.

The Owls scored twice in the last frame on a 28-yard sprint by another B-Teamer who wants to make good, Gene McAnelly. Then little Ernie Garcia, who tips the scales at 122 soaking wet, darted over for another score.

Johnny Abrego toed one extra point and earlier in the game Fred Bader, who will be back again in 1972, tackled an Aggie behind the goal line for a two-point safety.

Unofficial statistics showed, Hondo first: First Downs--19-9; Yards Rushing--408-38; Yards Passing--113-72; Passes--8-4-0, 30-8-2; Punts--0-9-25; Fumbles Lost--4-1; Penalties--8, 75, 7-80.

Game dinner all set

With more game coming in this week, hopefully, the annual Hondo Chamber of Commerce Wild Game Dinner is ready to serve up "appreciation" plates to hunters of this area.

CofC Manager Harry Filleman says, "We'll have another good one. We do need some more meat, and hopefully we'll get some contributions this week."

Committee chairmen, who along with their many workers, play a big part in making this event such a success each year includes:

Wood Hauling--Fred Graff, Tom Hollmig, Bud Woolls; Venison--Bud Woolls; Slaw--Rene Aelvoet; Chili--

Alvin Britsch,

Also, Armadillo--Reno Stanga; Meat Cooking--Robert Zuberbuehler; Meat Cutting--David McGraw; Hot Potatoes--Henry Stiegler; Bread--HEB Food Store; Meat Storage--Super Sav; Dove Stew--Lloyd Hermes; and Ice Tea--Sgt. Bill Green.

Here in Hondo

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Earl Cureton and son, Steven, have moved to San Antonio to make their home. They formerly were stationed at Charleston AFB, South Carolina.

Texans speak out on survey

Lt. Governor Ben Barnes today received the first returns of a one-year continuous survey of legislative and economic issues affecting independent businessmen in Texas.

George Cates, Texas division manager of the National Federation of Independent Businessmen, presented to Lt. Governor Barnes the 1,075 responses of the survey containing questions ranging from "hot check" law reform to pari-mutual betting in Texas.

Cates commended Lt. Governor Barnes on his cooperation with the N.F.I.B. in working to determine and solve the needs of independent businessmen throughout the state.

Barnes stated, "Independent businessmen make up 60% of Texas' economy in terms of number of employees, retail and wholesale sales and the results of this poll are invaluable in showing their needs to us in Austin."

"I encourage every State Representative and Senator to come by my office and examine the findings."

Welfare problems emerged as the number one concern among those mailing back the forms. An overwhelming 95% replied, "yes" to the question, "Do you favor requiring all able bodied persons who receive welfare payments to perform some work for the state in exchange?"

Eighty-eight percent favored paying no unemployment compensation or welfare benefits to workers while out on strike.

Paralleling the concern with welfare problems were the responses connected with what form a future tax raise should take.

When asked what tax would be the least objectionable, 30% favored an increase on selective tax items such as alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, amusements, etc. Twenty-nine percent okayed applying sales tax to all items sold at retail.

Twenty-seven percent favored an increase in the state sales tax while 10% favored placing the sales of all commercial real estate transactions under the present state sales tax. Only 3% favored adopting a state personal income tax law.

Under the broad heading of governmental reorganization, 63% favored annual sessions of the Texas Legislature while 44% favored adopting a new State Constitution.

Eighty-four percent of those polled favored a gamblers law to collect "hot checks", while in another area, an even 40% favored the existing daylight saving time schedule and 40% voted to discontinue the April to October time difference. Nine percent were undecided.

MCAEC to meet Mon. night

The Medina County Association for Exceptional Children will have its regular meeting Monday night, November 22, at 7:30 in the City Auditorium.

We have a very good program to look forward to this week as Mrs. Elizabeth McAnelly and Mrs. Carolyn Williamson will be the speakers.

Mrs. Williamson will give a report on the second annual Workshop for Vocational Teachers of the Handicapped which she attended in Dallas in June.

A workshop sponsored by Texas Rehabilitation Commission for Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors and Vocational Adjustment Coordinators in Houston, concerning the cooperative school work programs, was attended recently by Mrs. McAnelly. She will give a report on that meeting.

The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings and we urge that you do so. They are interesting as well as educational and informative.

Officers elected

Group seeks warm items for needy

One group in town intends to see that every home in the city is a warm one this winter, according to an announcement made last week. Father Emmet Carolan of St. John's Church issued the following appeal:

"The Hondo Community Service Group, made up of representatives of the different groups in town who try to help the needy, are anxious to make sure that everyone has a warm home during the cold weather.

"Insufficient heating has caused tragedy in the past. For example, an elderly person has only a small heater, has to sit too close to it or move it too close to the bed. Clothes catch fire--tragedy!

"Do you have a heater or blankets that you do not need? If so, would you give it to those in need?

"Do you need extra clothes or a heater and cannot afford to buy, or do you know somebody else in need of a heater or clothing for the winter?

If you need help or if you can help someone else, please call Father Carolan at St. John's Catholic Church--6-2236.

"Every reported case of need will be checked out. The group is determined, with help, to provide warmth for everyone."

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the requirements established by Section 3.09 of the Texas Clean Air Act, an examiner for the Texas Air Control Board will conduct a public hearing commencing at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 9, 1971, and continuing through Saturday, December 11, 1971, in the Capitol Ballroom of the Stephen F. Austin Hotel, 701 Congress Avenue, Austin, Texas, for the purpose of receiving public testimony concerning the proposed Implementation Plan, Air Quality Standards, Rules and Regulations I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII of the Texas Air Control Board.

Interested persons are invited to submit data, views and recommendations on the proposed Implementation Plan, Air Quality Standards, and Rules and Regulations either orally or in writing at the hearing. Parties desiring to present written testimony at the hearing are requested to submit fifteen (15) copies of their statements in writing to the Texas Air Control Board, 820 East 53rd Street, Austin, Texas, on or before November 28, 1971. Due to limitations of time and facilities, the Texas Air Control Board requests that industry representatives testify on Thursday, December 9, 1971, through 12:00 noon on Friday, December 10, 1971.
